

Title II Part A

Taos Municipal Schools uses Title II, Part A funds for

- Professional development for educational assistants, teachers, principals (other school leaders).
- Payment of stipends or additional compensation for hours accrued in professional trainings or meetings
- Payment of stipends for Mentoring Program
- Course reimbursements for alternative licensure, additional endorsements, or master's degree
- Conduct staff study groups at the school (e.g., pay stipends for staff, purchase books and materials, contract with speakers pertaining to the subject of the study).
- Pay for professional development costs associated with bringing a new supplemental program into the school.
- Pay staff stipends and benefits for curricular mapping activities and other standards-related activities.
- Pay registration fees and travel expenses for trainings, within reason.
- Pay costs of substitute teachers while regular teachers are participating in professional development.
- Pay costs associated with bringing a speaker or consultant into the school to work with staff on data analysis.